Library Book Display

The library case near the front door has a “THEN and NOW” display. We unearthed some relics from archives and were able to show what the library looked like in 1968 and corresponding pictures as to what it looks like today. Some things have changed and some things have not!

“Sometimes good things fall apart, so better things can fall together.” — Jessica Howell

Library has a newly designed webpage!

As many of you know, the UW-Waukesha has a newly designed webpage. That means the library does too! It is much easier to locate links that you may need, like the online catalog, research services, library tutorials and a soon to be coming FAQ link. Contact information is right on the main page. And, the search box works great if you need to find something on our page quickly.

Need some help in MATH or WRITING?

The Academic Success Center in Westview Hall can help you with that. Math tutoring, writing help and study groups are now up and running! Be sure to stop in their office W100 to find out what they can help you with. The information is on their webpage, and you can sign up on-line!

YES! Food on campus until 6pm at the Coffee Corner.

Yes, you now can get food on campus until 6pm Monday thru Thursday. The Coffee Corner (next to the bookstore) sells coffee, soft drinks, energy drinks, salads and sandwiches from 10am-6pm.

Got the Winter Blues, Feeling Depressed?

Stop by the Depression/Anxiety Screening for a few minutes to see what you can do!

Wednesday, February 19
11:30am-1:00pm

Student Development Office (A115)

These screenings are private and only take a few minutes to complete. Participants receive a coupon for a free drink at the HUB and may also enter a drawing for a $20 gas card.