The Library is now OPEN ON SUNDAYS!

The construction on the bridge that is the outdoor entrance to Northview Hall and the library has been completed. That means we can open the library on Sundays! Here are the facts:

Hours: The library is open on Sundays. Hours are from 3-9pm. (Closed on Saturdays.)

Math Tutor: The library has a math tutor from 3-9pm on Sundays. No appointment is necessary. Just walk in and get the help you need for ANY math class.

On Sundays only ONE door to the Campus will be open: The “bridge” entrance will be open. Park in the back of Northview Hall in Lot #1. Use the ramped sidewalk to get to this library entrance.

Calling All Aspiring Authors!

This is a great opportunity for students, faculty and staff to get their written work published! UW-Waukesha’s very own literary magazine, The Windy Hill Review, is actively seeking creative submissions. You should email your poems, stories, or artwork as attachments to waklit@uw.edu for consideration. Please limit your submissions to no more than 5 poems and/or 2 stories.

The Library has EVERY past issue of the Windy Hill Review if you would like to take a look at what types of written works get published. Just ask for it at the circulation desk, and we will point you in the right direction.

VOTER ID LAW BLOCKED

Late Thursday, October 9, 2014, the United States Supreme Court issued an order blocking implementation of Wisconsin’s voter photo ID law for the November 4, 2014. Any information stating that voter photo ID is in effect for the November 4, 2014 General Election should be disregarded. You DO NOT need a photo ID to vote.

Kate Bornstein will give a talk at UW-Waukesha in the third event of the Bob and Sue Andrews LGBTQ+ Lecture & Discussion

This program will be an entertaining introduction to the notion of sex and gender beyond the binary—as well as a deeply moving affirmation of spirit for sex-and-gender outlaws. This program includes many of Kate's most personal stories, favorite comic and dramatic monologues, and even a chapter from her memoir, A
